MUCH WANTED BEER AGENT CAPTURED IN BRIDGEVILLE

Chief of Police Albright Locates August Bertolotti and Arrests Him.

GIVES BONDS FOR HEARING

Is Charged in Connection With Two Others, Said to Work for Victor Brewing Company.

After having eluded the officers for many days, August Bertolotti of Charleroi, wanted on a charge of illegal liquor selling with C. Battaglini and Fabri Baefaello, was captured in Bridgeville, Allegheny county, yesterday afternoon by Chief of Police C. W. Albright of Charleroi and County Detective Wm. McCleary. Bertolotti was brought back here in the evening, Chief Albright arriving at 8:45 with his prisoner. He gave bond for $1,000 for his appearance before Justice of the Peace S. E. Wilson Friday afternoon, his father being his bondsman.

When C. Battaglini and Fabri Baefaello were arrested on charges of illegal liquor selling, Bertolotti, one of the most wanted of the trio, disappeared. Chief Albright and County Detective McCleary have been making efforts to find some trace of the man, and yesterday morning at 10 o'clock Chief Albright received word that the man was in Bridgeville, Allegheny county. He telephoned to District Attorney Acheson, who told Chief Albright to come to Washington. He went and there was met by County Detective McCleary. Together the couple left, intending to get off the train at Bridgeville, and hire a rig to drive to Bridgeville, a short distance away.

Alighting from the train at Bridgeville, Chief Albright spied Bertolotti in the crowd and made for him. The Italian saw the chief and attempted a getaway, but was quickly nabbed.

He was brought to Washington and then to Charleroi. Bertolotti made the statement that he had been in Jeannette and other places and that the officials of the Victor Brewing company had kept him away, until after the hearing here. It is claimed that Bertolotti took the orders and received the money from persons in the neighborhood of Charleroi for the beer which was to be shipped from Jeannette. According to rumor the beer was shipped in care of Battaglini at Dunlevy no names being placed on the separate packages. It is claimed it was then placed in a wagon belonging to Battaglini bearing the license number of the Jeannette brewery and distributed about the community. Bertolotti riding beside the wagon and directing Raffaello, the driver, where to deliver.

RACE FOR PRIZES SO CLOSE RESULTS ARE DOUBTFUL

Question of Outcome Can Only Be Settled By Final Developments—Only Nine Days Yet Remain.

V. H. Austin.
Nine days before the close of the great battle of ballots for the eight magnificent prizes offered by The Mail Publishing Company in its Great Price and Popularity Voting Contest, the outcome of the interesting conflict is as much in doubt as when the contest was in its earliest stages.

So close are the contestants running in most of the districts, that the question of the outcome can only be determined by the final developments.

In the uncertainty of the outcome lies one of the chief fascinations of the contest, and this fascination is further enhanced from the fact that it is the people that have an opportunity to help in determining the outcome and in winning the prizes for their favorite contestants.

No matter, however, how well any contestant has been supported to date they stand in need of every subscription they can possibly secure in the remaining day.

With the end of the contest but nine days away the necessity for substantial support at the hands of the people and continuous effort on the part of the contestants is greater than ever before. This week is the one for the hustling candidates to do their work, and secure with every twenty-five dollars five thousand extra votes. This is the last extra vote offer of any kind to be made during the contest. Do your work this week while you have the shears and extra votes to work for. Work will pay you on the contest, and pay you good.

The result will be doubtful to the end.

VIEWERS FAVOR FREEING OF BELLE VERNON BRIDGE

First Anniversary of Organization of Ladies' League of Speers M. E. Church Entertains Outside Societies.

The Ladies League of the Methodist Episcopal church of Speers last night entertained members of societies of this vicinity in honor of the first anniversary of their existence. There were a large number present, and a good program of musical and literary features were rendered. Sixteen members of the Charleroi Ladies League attended the meeting.

The viewers on the Belle Vernon bridge from Washington and Fayette counties in their final meeting at the Fort Pitt Hotel, Pittsburgh, this morning, formulated a report to the two courts favoring the freeing of the bridge, and setting the price at $50,000, as suggested at a previous meeting by Engineer Emile Swensson.

TWENTY-TWO WANT PAPERS

Foreign Delegation will Make Trip to Pittsburgh Thursday.

M. J. Tylavsky will have charge of a party of 22 foreign born residents of Charleroi, who will go to Pittsburgh Thursday to secure first and second papers in naturalization. There are eight who will ask for first papers, and 14 who will seek second papers. Most of this number are Slovaks and Russians. A. Olsavicki, the local meat dealer, will go with the party as a witness.

About two weeks ago, Mr. Tylavsky took down a party of 10 to secure their first papers. There are about 30 more who will go later on.

Those who go for their first papers will receive them at once, and then if they have been in this country three years already will in two years more, providing they are able to pass the examinations, secure their second papers. The ones going for second papers will take their examinations and if they pass will receive their papers in 90 days. They have to answer a number of questions, and must have a passable knowledge of the constitution and laws of the United States. Before any one can secure the final naturalization papers they must have been residents in the United States five years.

Ask for Road Improvements

A delegation of citizens from Charleroi, Monongahela and Donora, interested in road improvements, was at Washington yesterday, interviewing the county commissioners relative to the project. One of these is a State road from Finleyville to Monongahela, and thence to Charleroi. Joseph A. Herron of Monongahela was the spokesman. The commissioners stated that they realized the necessity of such improvements, but that as other sections were also clamoring for recognition all improvements could not be made at once.

Those present from this community were C. F. Thompson of Charleroi and Tom P. Sloan of North Charleroi.

Officer George McEldowney is happy nowadays over his latest acquisition—a brand new cap. The headgear is quite becoming to the popular officer who wears it with a befitting dignity.

Hold Final Meeting This Morning at Pittsburgh and Formulate Report.

NOW UP TO GRAND JURY

After Their Action and Assent of Court, County Commissioners Will Act.

The viewers on the Belle Vernon bridge from Washington and Fayette counties in their final meeting at the Fort Pitt Hotel, Pittsburgh, this morning, formulated a report to the two courts favoring the freeing of the bridge, and setting the price at $50,000, as suggested at a previous meeting by Engineer Emile Swensson.

After the meeting convened this morning, there was some discussion of the proposed project, after which the vote was taken. The vote for the filing of a favorable report was not unanimous. S. D. Taylor, and J. V. Johnson, both of Washington, being opposed. Those in favor were D. M. Campsey, Washington, Charles B. Franks, L. R. Byrne and Samuel W. Henshaw, Fayette county.

The report will be filed at once. The grand jury and courts will act on the matter, and if they accept the reports then the county commissioners will take the matter in hand and offer a price for the bridge, or take whatever other action they see fit. Contention proceedings may be instituted, and the bridge condemned, but either side would have the right to appeal.

"Actor Animals" at Coyle Theatre

Beginning with tomorrow's, Thursday's matinee the management of the Coyle Theatre has managed to secure that greatest of all animal acts, "Clares' Animal Actors" comprising dogs and monkeys in pantomime entitled "Scenes from Life." This is one of the most talked of acts now playing the vaudeville line. That clever Italian impersonator, Phil Berg will offer his laughable monologue, "The Wap."

The somewhat different trio, Morton, West and Morton, will entertain with newest songs and bright new dances. Miss Cecelia Hall, a singing comedienne, possesses a charming personality in addition to being a singer of no mean ability. Her imitation of Fay Templeton in "45 Minutes from Broadway" is said to be especially clever.

Last but not least comes the wonderful pantomimic pair, Arthur and Jeanet, in a marvelous exhibition of contortion. Taken as a whole this program will afford much pleasure to the discriminating vaudeville audience of Charleroi. Usual matinees 2:30. Admission 10 cents. Evenings at 7:30 and 9 p. m. Admission 10 cents. First 8 rows at 15 cents.

Lenten Service Tonight.

Uncle Banks' Plan.

At the convention of the county road supervisors at Washington yesterday some good road talk was delivered by experts, among whom was State Highway Commissioner J. W. Hunter, who strikingly demonstrated the wasteful policy of annually expending millions of dollars in fixing up dirt roads, which last only a season, and have to be renewed each year at exorbitant expense. It remained for Assemblyman J. B. Holland, however, to outline a plan of National, State and local road improvement that has the earmarks of practicability.

"Uncle Banks' plan is for the National Government to construct all roads connecting State capitals for the State to construct all roads connecting county seats; for the counties to construct the highway connecting the principal cities and towns with the county seats, and for the townships to build the roads connecting with these main arteries. In that manner the burden is divided equitably, and if carried out systematically in all the States would result in a surprisingly short time in an unprecedented internal development that would become National. By thus uniting the suburban districts with the urban, which are now practically isolated, relief for the high cost of living would be afforded by making farm life enjoyable and more tolerable.

The National Government is now committed to a waterways policy. A movement should be started to commit it to a road improvement policy. An annual appropriation of fifty million dollars applied to permanent road building in all the States would prove a great Nation builder.

The Church League.

From present indications the Church Baseball League will cut an important figure in sporting and amusement circles in Charleroi this season. If conducted on the broad and ethical lines throughout the entire season as planned, it will be productive of keen enjoyment by the masses, beside cementing the bonds of church unity and promoting individual church affiliation and united effort toward the common purpose of righteous living.

With evening games, at which no admission is charged, a delightful means of recreation and public amusement is afforded the workers of this community, the busy housewife as well as the toiler in mill, mine, office and factory. The league has also an economic value to the community. By affording pleasant breaks in the monotony of life and a modicum of pleasure each week, the desire to make unwarranted expenditures and sacrifices for a vacation away that perhaps can be ill afforded is eliminated. It remains for the officers of the league and individual clubs to maintain the high standard of conduct on the field that the regulations impose, and the league will become the greatest factor in promoting church work and unity that the community has ever witnessed.

ADVERTISE IN THE MAIL

Do You Realize?

That despondency in women is a mental condition often traceable to some distinctly female ill!

Women who are well do not have the blues, neither are they irritable and restless. Derangement of the female organism breeds all kinds of miserable feelings such as backache, headache, and bearing-down feelings. Try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. There is no doubt that it has made many remarkable cures of female ills after all other means had failed. There is hardly a day that some woman does not write us that this simple old medicine, made only of roots and herbs, has cured her of a severe illness.

Here are two such letters—read them—they are genuine and reliable.

Plata, Pa.—"When I wrote to you first I was troubled with backache and was so nervous that I would cry at the least noise, it would startle me so. I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's remedies, and I don't have any more crying spells. I sleep sound and my catarrh is better, thanks to your advice. I will recommend your medicines to all sufferers."—Mrs. Mary Halstead, Plata, Pa., Box 98.

Walcott, N. Dakota.—"I had inflammation which caused pains in my sides, and my back ached all the time. I was so blue that I felt like crying if any one even said 'How poorly you look to-day.' I wrote to you for advice and got it at once. I started to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, Blood Purifier and Liver Pills, and I began to feel better and looked better before I finished the fourth bottle of medicine."—Mrs. Amelia Dahl, Walcott, N. Dakota.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

MUCH WANTED BEER AGENT CAPTURED IN BRIDGEVILLE

Chief of Police Albright Locates August Bertolotti and Arrests Him.

GIVES BONDS FOR HEARING

Is Charged in Connection With Two Others, Said to Work for Victor Brewing Company.

After having eluded the officers for many days August Bertolotti of Charleroi, wanted on a charge of illegal liquor selling with C. Battaglini and Fabri Baefaello, was captured in Bridgeville, Allegheny county, yesterday afternoon by Chief of Police C. W. Albright of Charleroi and County Detective Wm. McCleary. Bertolotti was brought back here in the evening, Chief Albright arriving at 8:45 with his prisoner. He gave bond for $1,000 for his appearance before Justice of the Peace S. E. Wilson Friday afternoon, his father being his bondsman.

When C. Battaglini and Fabri Baefaello were arrested on charges of illegal liquor selling, Bertolotti, one of the most wanted of the trio, disappeared. Chief Albright and County Detective McCleary have been making efforts to find some trace of the man, and yesterday morning at 10 o'clock Chief Albright received word that the man was in Bridgeville, Allegheny county. He telephoned to District Attorney Arneson, who told Chief Albright to come to Washington. He went and there was met by County Detective McCleary. Together the couple left, intending to get off the train at Bridgeville, and hire a rig to drive to Bridgeville, a short distance away.

Alighting from the train at Bridgeville, Chief Albright spied Bertolotti in the crowd and made for him. The Italian saw the chief and attempted a getaway, but was quickly nabbed.

He was brought to Washington and then to Charleroi. Bertolotti made the statement that he had been in Jeannette and other places and that the officials of the Victor Brewing company had kept him away, until after the hearing here. It is claimed that Bertolotti took the orders and received the money from persons in the neighborhood of Charleroi for the beer which was to be shipped from Jeannette. According to rumor the beer was shipped in care of Battaglini at Dunlevy no names being placed on the separate packages. It is claimed it was then placed in a wagon belonging to Battaglini bearing the license number of the Jeannette brewery and distributed about the community, Bertolotti riding beside the wagon and directing Raffaello, the driver, where to deliver.

RACE FOR PRIZES SO CLOSE RESULTS ARE DOUBTFUL

Question of Outcome Can Only Be Settled By Final Developments—Only Nine Days Yet Remain.

V. H. Austin. Nine days before the close of the great battle of ballots for the eight magnificent prizes offered by The Mail Publishing company in its Great Price and Popularity Voting Contest, the outcome of the interesting conflict is as much in doubt as when the contest was in its earliest stages. So close are the contestants running in most of the districts, that the question of the outcome can only be determined by the final developments. In the uncertainty of the outcome lies one of the chief fascinations of the contest, and this fascination is further enhanced from the fact that it is the people that have an opportunity to help in determining the outcome and in winning the prizes for their favorite contestants.

M. J. Tylavsky will have charge of a party of 22 foreign born residents of Charleroi, who will go to Pittsburg Thursday to secure first and second papers in naturalization. There are eight who will ask for first papers, and 14 who will seek second papers. Most of this number are Slovaks and Russians. A. Olsavicki, the local meat dealer, will go with the party as a witness.

About two weeks ago, Mr. Tylavsky took down a party of 10 to secure their first papers. There are about 30 more who will go later on.

Those who go for their first papers will receive them at once, and then if they have been in this country three years already will in two years more, providing they are able to pass the examinations, secure their second papers. The ones going for second papers will take their examinations and if they pass will receive their papers in 90 days. They have to answer a number of questions, and must have a passable knowledge of the constitution and laws of the United States. Before any one can secure the final naturalization papers they must have been residents in the United States five years.

Ask for Road Improvements

A delegation of citizens from Charleroi, Monongahela and Donora, interested in road improvements, was at Washington yesterday, interviewing the county commissioners relative to the project. One of these is a State road from Finleyville to Monongahela, and thence to Charleroi. Joseph A. Herron of Monongahela was the spokesman. The commissioners stated that they realized the necessity of such improvements, but that as other sections were also clamoring for recognition all improvements could not be made at once.

Those present from this community were C. F. Thompson of Charleroi and Tom P. Sloan of North Charleroi.

Uncle Banks' Plan.

At the convention of the county road supervisors at Washington yesterday some good road talk was delivered by experts, among whom was State Highway Commissioner J. W. Hunter, who strikingly demonstrated the wasteful policy of annually expending millions of dollars in fixing up dirt roads, which last only a season, and have to be renewed each year at exorbitant expense. It remained for Assemblyman T. R. Ballard, however, to outline a plan of National, State and local road improvement that has the earmarks of practicability.

"Uncle Banks'" plan is for the National Government to construct all roads connecting State capitals for the State to construct all roads connecting county seats; for the counties to construct the highway connecting the principal cities and towns with the county seats, and for the townships to build the roads connecting with these main arteries. In that manner the burden is divided equitably, and if carried out systematically in all the States would result in a surprisingly short time in an unprecedented internal development that would become National. By thus uniting the suburban districts with the urban, which are now practically isolated, relief for the high cost of living would be afforded by making farm life enjoyable and more tolerable.

The National Government is now committed to a waterways policy. A movement should be started to commit it to a road improvement policy. An annual appropriation of fifty million dollars applied to permanent road building in all the States would prove a great Nation builder.

The Church League.

From present indications the Church Baseball League will cut an important figure in sporting and amusement circles in Charleroi this season. If conducted on the broad and ethical lines throughout the entire season as planned, it will be productive of keen enjoyment by the masses, beside cementing the bonds of church unity and promoting individual church stimulation and united effort toward the common purpose of righteous living.

With evening games, at which no admission is charged, a delightful means of recreation and public amusement is afforded the workers of this community, the busy housewife as well as the toiler in mill, mine, office and factory. The league has also an economic value to the community, by affording pleasant breaks in the monotony of life and a modicum of leisure each week, the desire to make unwarranted expenditures and sacrifices for a vacation away that perhaps can be illly afforded is eliminated. It remains for the officers of the league and individual clubs to maintain the high standard of conduct on the field that the regulations impose, and the league will become the greatest factor in promoting church work and unity that the community has ever witnessed.

ADVERTISE IN THE MAIL

Do You Realize?

That despondency in women is a mental condition often traceable to some distinctly female ill!

Women who are well do not have the blues, neither are they irritable and restless. Derangement of the female organism breeds all kinds of miserable feelings such as backache, headache, and bearing-down feelings. Try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. There is no doubt that it has made many remarkable cures of female ills after all other means had failed. There is hardly a day that some woman does not write us that this simple old medicine, made only of roots and herbs, has cured her of a severe illness.

Here are two such letters—read them—they are genuine and reliable.

Platea, Pa.—"When I wrote to you first I was troubled with backache and was so nervous that I would cry at the least noise, it would startle me so. I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's remedies, and I don't have any more crying spells. I sleep sound and my catarrh is better, thanks to your advice. I will recommend your medicines to all sufferers."—Mrs. Mary Halstead, Platea, Pa., Box 98.

Walcott, N. Dakota—"I had inflammation which caused pains in my sides, and my back ached all the time. I was so blue that I felt like crying if any one even said 'How poorly you look to-day.' I wrote to you for advice and got it at once. I started to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, Blood Purifier and Liver Pills, and I began to feel better and looked better before I finished the fourth bottle of medicine."—Mrs. Amelia Dahl, Walcott, N. Dakota.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

The Place Where You Get the Good Things to Eat

Read the Mail

Follow this advice.

Quaker Oats is the best of all foods; it is also the cheapest. When such men as Prof. Fisher of Yale University and Sir James Crichton Browne, LL.D.-F.R.S. of London spend the best parts of their lives in studying the great question of the nourishing and strengthening qualities of different foods, it is certain that their advice is absolutely safe to follow.

Professor Fisher found in his experiments for testing the strength and endurance of athletes that the meat eaters were exhausted long before the men who were fed on such food as Quaker Oats. The powers of endurance of the non-meat eaters were about eight times those of the meat eaters.

Sir James Crichton Browne says—eat more oatmeal, eat plenty of it and eat it frequently.

The Old Story

Long time ago, when the animals were getting their freedom suits news was sent around that every one was to come out. The squirrel invited the rabbit to go for a set of teeth but he said wait. The cat asked him to go for claws but the rabbit said there is plenty of time. But when the other animals came back with claws and teeth he came to his senses, and made a run for the castle, only to find there was nothing to fit him, like some people of today who put off having their eyes properly fixed with glasses, when it costs them nothing to have them examined at

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

Bulletin

DREADNAUGHT CARS

The nub of railroading is first-class equipment and reliable service. The Pennsylvania Railroad provides this for the public. For many months big all-steel coaches built like Dreadnaughts, have been operated on all through trains. Their easy-riding qualities and steadiness of motion have been widely praised. The all steel dining cars too have distinct advantages over the wooden ones. They are stronger and steadier, and the act of eating is made more enjoyable by the smoother movement.

There are also some steel Pullman Cars—Combined Parlor—Smokers and Bageage—in the service now. Travelers like them. They have plenty of elbow room and they glide over the rails. The sleeping cars are coming. Some four hundred parlor and sleeping cars will be in use by summer.

These steel coaches and cars are the strongest vehicles ever built for passenger transportation. They are fire proof, break proof and bend proof. They represent the climax of safety and the perfection of comfort in railroad travel.

The Pennsylvania Railroad has always been the leader in all manner of improved equipment as well as in all methods of making their patrons more comfortable. This is why it is known and honored as The Standard Railroad of America.
